The Varsity Basketball team under the direction of Carl Jenkins, has had an outstanding season. Ranked 10th in the Star/Times Area Poll, with a record of 17-5. The J.V. Basketball team has also had an excellent season under Mr. Jackson, presently with a record of 11-1. The Freshman team has experienced some difficulty thus far, but we are confident they will work out their flaws to become another great basketball team.

This year's Rampage Staff struggled to meet several of its production deadlines, but came together when it was important, and got the job done. The combined efforts of the three veteran staff members and the nine 'rookies' made the atmosphere in the yearbook classroom a new experience and there are hopes that many more will join next year. Mr. Day, the yearbook co-ordinator, applied the pressure that was needed to meet the deadlines and made this book possible.

1. "Why are you covering up your work, Duncan?" 3. Renee is waiting to find out what she has done NOW. 4. Rachel and Teresa are actually working! 5. Get back to work Paul, the picture's taken. 6. "I wonder what Dann did last night."

This year's musical, "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown", was a great success. The simple stage setting and good acting made it an enjoyable night for all. Sister Catrina, director, and Sister David Marie, musical director, directed a brilliant acting and musical staff to make the play a great production.

Sister Michael Delores arranged the first annual Fall Carnival. The carnival was a great success for Bishop Hogan High.

The purpose of the carnival was to draw the students closer together. As an example of this, each homeroom designed and set up their own booth. The majority of the student body participated in this big event of the year. Most of the students felt it was a worthwhile project.

1. Carla shows her ability in jumping jacks. 2. Mr. Dorr and Mr. Capo in jail? 3. Tommy's with a swish. 4. Mrs. Diemer and Miss Berney show great enthusiasm after a long day. 5. I could have sworn I did this yesterday.

NEWS- PAPER STAFF

This is the first year Hogan had a newspaper staff. Their moderator was Sr. Lois Wilde. With her help, they brought forth the Tamamataz every other week. It featured Hogan's heros, sports items, and general news about the school. Thanks for the Ramamataz!!

Study

English

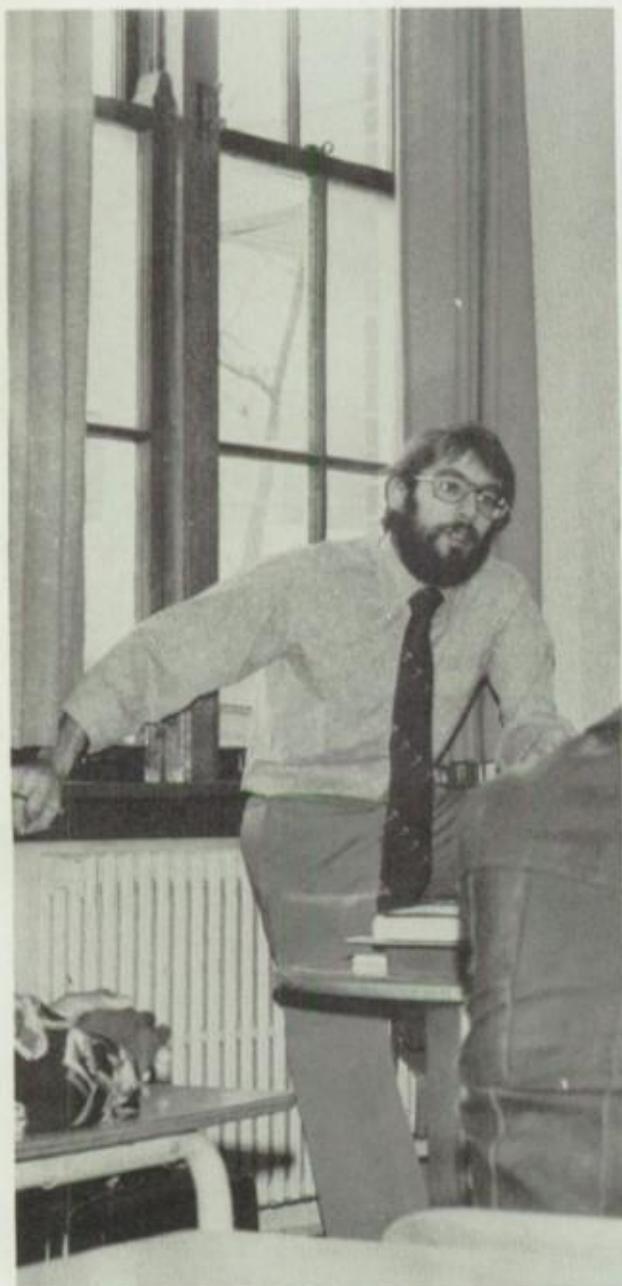

1. How can John study with his eyes closed? 2. Mrs. Storey keeps her Freshmen reading! 3. Mr. Capo emphasizes a point. 4. Mr. Duschen reads to his Afro-American Literature students. 5. Sr. Paulmarie's English tests aren't easy. 6. "Now wait a minute!"

Our English department this year consisted of the usual English I, II, III, Mass Media, Advanced Literature, Science Fiction—a new addition, College English, World Literature, Afro American Literature and Creative Writing. The teachers in this department this year were Mr. Duschen, Mrs. Diemer, Mrs. Storey, Mr. Day, with the addition of Sister Paulmarie. They attended an English Teacher's Convention held in Kansas City. At the convention, they were given the chance to compare notes with other English teachers.

History

This years history department was once again headed by Mr. Louis Read with a new addition to his staff, Mr. Carl Jenkins. The rest of the history department was sparkled by Mr. Ed Lewis, Sister Michael Delores and Sister Paul Marie. There are many different history classes at Bishop Hogan, each class has a variety of things to do and new ideas to learn.

1. "Tyrone, I see you sleeping back there." 2. Mr. Jenkins teaches a very small History class. 3. These guys take notes! 4. "And this is where we are."

Math

Mr. Scott Duschen is the head of the Math Department at Hogan. With all the excellent Math teachers we have at Hogan, be expecting within the next ten years, millions of Hogan alumni to become famous mathematicians.

1

1. Is Michelle the only one in the class that's working? 2. I bet Cathy is the first one out the door. 3. "I'll show you ONE MORE TIME!" 4. "Mrs. Byrd, couldn't you make the test date Friday or Monday?"

Miss Virginia Berney is the head of the Religion Department. Many of the various opportunities for religious education are: The required Religion I through IV; Church, which teaches the student about the community and it's message; Death and Dying, which deals with a realistic approach to death; Prayer, wich covers the methods, approaches and experiences of prayer. There is also Christian action, which lets the student act on his/her own beliefs.

4 2

1. Are you working? Or is this a pose? 2. Sew that dress, quickly. 3. Grace sure enjoys her work. 4. Sister, we're so confused. 5. What are you hiding from?

Language

Mr. Zeoli was the head of the Language Department again this year. He did an excellent job with his students, teaching them the language and its customs in French and Spanish, along with customs and foods in A Language for Everyone. Mrs. Ott did an excellent job with her Latin students.

1. I think they knew the camera was in the room. 2. "And who said Mr. Zeoli's students don't work?" 3. "Where did the rest of the class go?" 4. Mr. Zeoli sure keeps a tidy desk. 5. "Wake up, Nguyen Thug!"

Art

Sr. Rita Magrath was the head of the Art Department this year. In her first year at Hogan, Sister has handled her classes differently than in the past. Because of much freer classes, her students were able to try their talents in wire sculpture, blind contour drawing and continuous line drawings.

1. "One more stroke and I'm gonna choke." 2. "Mirror, mirror, in the hand, who's the fairest in the land?" 3. Deep concentration. 4. Sister Rita caught unaware.

1

2

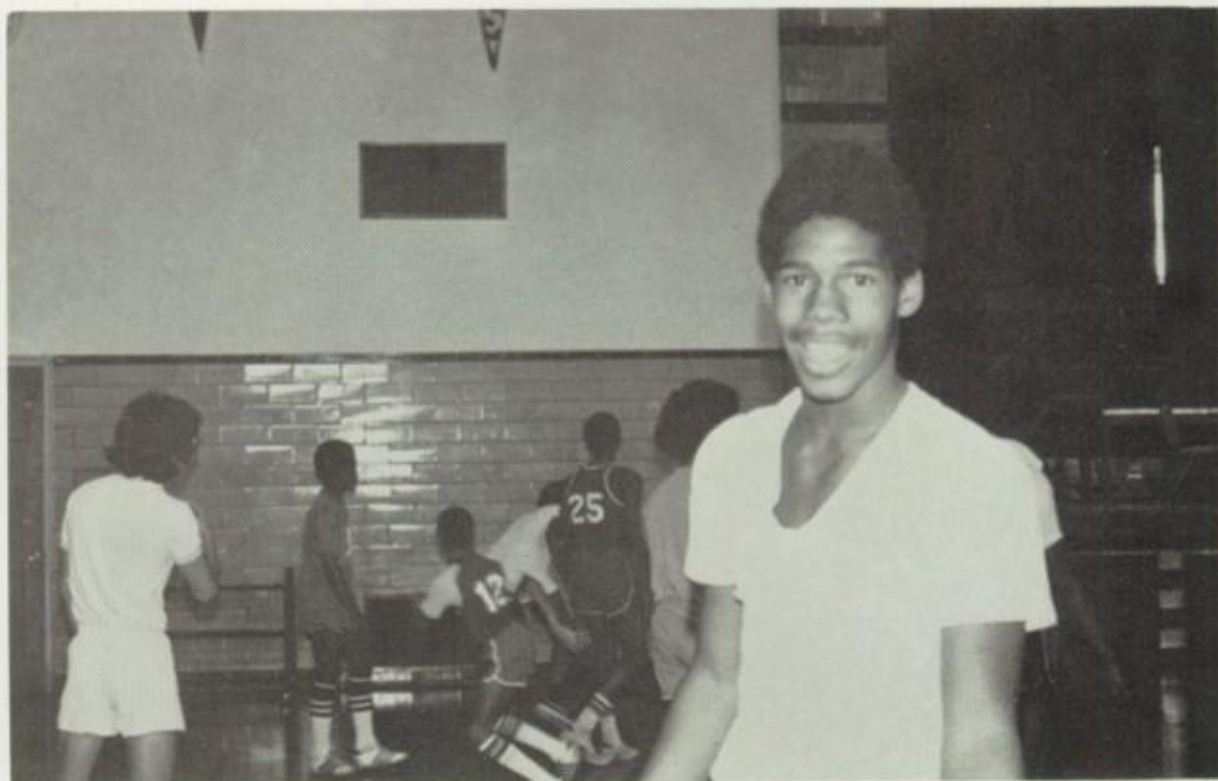

4 3

Physical Education

Physical Education gives the students a chance to get rid of a little energy without upsetting their classroom. In Physical Education the students explore many activities which give the student the opportunity to find a sport or sports they like. The basics are taught and the rest is learned by practice.

1

1. This is Phys. Ed., not public speaking. 2. Mrs. Brentano watches her students flip. 3. A freshman demonstrating a quick way to get a headache. 4. Perfect, now where's the basket? 5. "Don't worry, there is not going to be a rebound."
